LA TORCHE

Following La Torche Windsurf in 2014 and 2016, the Terre de Glisse team is bringing a new concept of watersports competition to Pays Bigouden.

The best French and international riders will face off in intense and spectacular competition.

Including stand-up paddle, surf, and windsurf, we will compete hard every day no matter the weather.

Inspired by the X-Games, our mission for the Wave Games is to create one of the greatest international surf sports events of all time.

1	3	3	3	3
2	5	6	8	8
3	8	7	8	5

The Wave Games' objective is to showcase the broad diversity of surf sports. In welcoming the disciplines of surfing, stand-up paddle surfing, windsurfing, and kiteboarding to La Torche, we will bring together the watersports community in a grand celebration. Nine days of all kinds of surf competition will make this amazing festival possible.

October 20-26: La Torche takes off with competition in every discipline.

The concept is simple: Over 7 days of competition, the organization team will accommodate four sports represented by 16 riders in each discipline.

The ranking in individual competitions will be the base of the overall ranking. The racers participating in three disciplines minimum will be ranked in the overall competition "King of the Wave." The cumulative points of each racer's three best results will be used to select the three winning wave riders. In the case of participation in all four disciplines, the worst finish will be excluded from results.

Under this system, the organizers will welcome 16 riders per discipline, divided into three different classifications:

- Racers invited by the organizers
- Racers registered in a single discipline
- Racers registered in Overall.

October 27-28: Team Race – France against the rest of the world

The organizers wish to organize a team race on the last weekend of the Wave Games.

Each team will be composed of a man and a woman under each discipline. Eight competitors will represent France, and eight will represent international athletes.

All the results of the team race count for the overall ranking, and in the case of a tie, the women's results will be used as the tie breaker.

We hope this new format will add a suspenseful and emotional element to the competition, capturing the imagination of the public.
